

Full Time Position

Building Cadet

A long-established local building company is seeking persons with a strong and keen interest in learning construction estimating and project management. The position will entail estimating on construction projects and obtaining material and sub contract prices for the submission of tenders. No experience necessary. School leavers are encouraged to apply.

This person should:

- ❖ Hold a current drivers licence or in the process of obtaining
- ❖ Be self motivated and demonstrate excellent communication skills
- ❖ Be required to take external university studies in construction management
- ❖ Senior school certificate required with good passes (high grades) in Mathematics, English, Graphics and computers would also be an advantage. OP required for external studies.

Applications close Friday 9 November 2018

Applications in writing to:
Adam Wright (Project Manager)
Fergus Builders

adam@fergusblders.com.au