Are you a student?

Are you a student with a disability, injury or living with mental health and getting ready to kick start your career? Looking for every advantage to get that job you'll love? You need Mylestones in your corner.

We've helped thousands of job seekers find jobs they love in every industry imaginable - and we can help you too.

We're with you for every step of your journey.

Planning for life after study should happen well before graduation day. Sure, you've built content knowledge and perhaps you've completed some work placements and internships. But are you really ready to launch into your career? Don't worry. Mylestones can help set you on the right path.

Our transition to work and work experience programs give you the best possible foundation for your professional success with real world skills and access to a range of support and advice.

Our programs and partnerships include:

- Student Work Experience and Employment Training (SWEET)
- University Specialist Employment Partnerships (USEP)
- Project Booyah
- Queensland Mental Health

Mylestones Employment supports people with barriers to employment to find a job that's right for them. Whatever your career ambitions might be, we'd love to help you get there. We work alongside employers and businesses of every size, to build inclusive workplaces and make sure our job seekers are a good fit for the long term.

Our transition to work programs will equip you with the practical skills you need to successfully enter the workforce at your own pace. Once you find a job, we're here to provide continued on the job support whenever you need it.
